Awards: Will you be crowned the, fan-voted Boomtown BBQ Bash Champion?

Team Sizes: Please keep team sizes to four members or less if possible unless you are a cooking team from business or industry. The first 25 registered teams will be accepted! Each member of the cooking team will receive admittance into the event at no charge. Additional registrants to be added to a waitlist and communicated with once we have an opening.

Cooking Amount: You should plan on cooking at least twice during the event and provide a minimum of 200 tastings/sample sizes (not full meals). Having items fit on a toothpick or in a small cup is perfect.

What to Cook: This is completely up to you and your team! A breakfast-ish type item would be great first thing in the morning. Beyond that, meatballs, chicken, shrimp, stew, mac and cheese, pineapple, cake bites, smores, etc. are all welcome items!

No Set Up No Problem!: Grill will be supplied by M&D Supply and supporting vendors for each of our teams to cook on. Just let us know! We also welcome teams with trailers!

Cooking Area: We will have limited tents and tables available for each team. We would appreciate it if you are bringing a tent and (1-2) 6′ or 8′ tables if you are able. (Please denote this on the team registration form.) M&D representatives will call you to clarify details and provide further information.
